love is nice so is pain lol. If you got this DLC in the Game & All DLCs bundle, then don't worry, because it's a fun enough map to play for how much you technically spent on it, as a single map. However, unless you're reading this during the 90 percent sale that Dungeon Defenders often has, Etherian Festival of Love is not worth paying $1.99 for, based on what it gives you.. it is hell to play just like a relationship.....maybe i shouldnt post this ah no one will take this joke seriously but it is fun and it has one of the best skins in the game so buy it for yourself and your loved one because nothing says love like killing goblins and orcs. Okay, so I bought this (and other seasonal) DLC looking forward to the tavern decorations but they do not apply, they were only used at the time of the season as a temporary patch and later removed. So you never actually get the tavern decorations if you buy the DLC at a later date. Very disappointing. I did read the devs say they were going to make the tavern decorations available in their last ever run of updates in 2014 but clearly that didn't happen.
